- Hear current news from the Division of Behavioral Health and Recovery from Jennifer Bliss, Manager of the Office of Consumer Partnerships.
 - News about integration for mental health and substance use
 - News that affects you and your family
- Provide input to the state about services in your region, including:
 - Are services recovery oriented?
 - Is peer support used effectively?
 - Do individuals and families have voice in the system?
 - Are there service needs the state should know about?
- Your input is valuable and will be used by the state in system planning and improvement – – your voice matters!
