CALL FOR PRESENTATION PROPOSALS 2018 KING COUNTY RECOVERY AND WELLNESS CONFERENCE

Expect Recovery: Strengthen Health, Home, Purpose, and Community

When: Thursday and Friday, August 9 and 10, 2018

Where: Seattle University, Pigott Building, 901 12th Ave, Seattle, 98122, WA

PROPOSALS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JUNE 15, 2018

King County Behavioral Health and Recovery Division (BHRD) is seeking presentation, workshop and panel discussion proposals to teach practical skills that promote mental health and/or substance use recovery and increase knowledge of recovery and resiliency principles and practices.

Conference attendees include people in recovery, their family members, students, and service providers participating in publicly funded behavioral health services in King County.

Presentations, workshops, and panel discussions will be scheduled for 1 hour 15 minutes and must include an interactive activity. It is highly recommended that presentation, workshops, and panel discussions be facilitated or co-facilitated by people in recovery and/or family members.

The focus areas for this conference are the major dimensions essential to life in recovery:

Health Home Purpose Community

While all recovery and wellness topics will be considered, people in recovery and their families have expressed an interest in the following topics:

Reducing Stigma	What is Recovery?
Employment	Peer Support
Fun in Recovery	Whole Health
Youth and Family Resilience	Recovery from Trauma
Advocacy	Artistic Expression
Alternative & Complementary Supports	Know your Rights
Harm Reduction	Accessing Community Resources
Overcoming Cultural Barriers	Relationship Building
Corrections & Re-entry	Telling Your Story
System Navigation	Diagnosis Later in Life

PRESENTATION PROPOSAL SUBMISSION FORM

2018 RECOVERY & WELLNESS CONFERENCE

Expect Recovery: Strengthen Health, Home, Purpose, and Community

The conference organizing committee welcomes proposal submissions from both experienced and novice presenters. A presenter/co-presenter may submit or appear in more than one proposal. If submitting more than one proposal, each proposal must be submitted on a separate form. Please do not submit a proposal unless your attendance is assured.

Proposal submissions can be faxed to 206-296-0583, emailed to kathleen.murphy@kingcounty.gov, or mailed to:
