

Psychology Associate

$7,382.00-$9,933.00 Monthly

Current openings at:

Monroe Correctional Complex - Monroe, WA.

Washington Corrections Center for Women - Gig Harbor, WA.

Washington State Penitentiary - Walla Walla, WA.

The Psychology Associate provides mental health services (both individual and group) to a diverse population, including those who may be seriously mentally ill, in accordance with the Correctional Health Plan.

Required Qualifications:

Washington State Mental Health Counselor License or eligible to apply for and obtain Agency Affiliated Registration* within 60 days of position appointment.

Master's degree in Psychology from an accredited school or department of Psychology, AND one (1) year supervised work experience providing direct psychological services in a mental health facility or like agency, AND at least one (1) year of experience providing individual or group therapy to individuals with mental illness, AND knowledge of cognitive behavioral therapy theory and techniques.

OR

Master or Doctoral degree in Marriage and Family Therapy, behavioral sciences, Mental Health Counseling, or Social Work from an accredited graduate school, AND two (2) years of supervised work experience providing direct psychological services in a mental health facility or like agency.

Health Services Recruiter, Kathey Waggoner

 509-907-7808

 kathey.waggoner@doc1.wa.gov

 www.jobs.doc.wa.gov